Thank you for consigning with Nu Look. We appreciate your business.

Nu Look will determine the selling price of your items at approximately 1/3 of retail value and make decisions regarding quality control. You receive 50% of the selling price. Items are consigned for 90 days. Your consignment period is shortened if items are brought in less than 60 days before our storewide sales (always the second Thursday of January and July). Each time you bring in your items, you begin a new 90-day contract period. Items that do not sell in 60 days are reduced 50%. After 90 days, items unsold and unclaimed are not credited to your account and may be given to charity. It is your responsibility to locate and pick up unsold items you want back prior to their expiration date. Unacceptable or damaged items are given to charity or reduced in price. Items are subject to a 10% reduction at all times. The terms and conditions of this contract will remain in effect until further notice.

Nu Look is a clothing broker and cannot insure inventory we do not own. We are careful and trustworthy but not liable for fire, theft or damage. Despite our videotape security camera system, theft still does occur. All merchandise is left at your own risk.

We have over 10,000 active accounts. You can stop in to check on your account or use our website. Money in your account may be issued as a check or used for store credit. If you prefer we will mail a check to you at the end of the consignment period for a 75¢ service charge. Please keep your receipt.

I have read and agree to the conditions and terms of this contract. I understand that Nu Look is not liable for theft or damage.
